COOKIES

A cookie is a small text file that is sent along with the pages of a website and stored by the browser on your computer, tablet or mobile phone. We use cookies to offer you more service when visiting our website, which makes it easier to use. Cookies ensure, for example, that you can remain logged in to a website or that your preferences, such as location and language settings, are remembered. Thanks to cookies, we can see how often our website - and which pages - are viewed by visitors.

You must first give permission to place certain cookies before these cookies can be used. This permission is not necessary if and insofar as it concerns technically necessary (functional) cookies and analytical cookies, within the meaning of the applicable legislation, such as article 11.7a paragraph 3 of the Telecommunications Act and the ePrivacy Regulation.

You can always withdraw your consent for cookies by changing your internet settings. More information about switching on and off and removing cookies can be found in the help function of your browser.

PROVISION OF PERSONAL DATA TO THIRD PARTIES

Without your permission, the Association will only provide your personal data to third parties if this is necessary for the execution of the Agreement that the Association has with you, unless the Association is legally obliged to provide your personal data to these third parties.

INSPECTION, CORRECTION AND DELETION OF PERSONAL DATA

You have the right to request the Association to inspect your personal data (unless the Association is not obliged to provide this access under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)) and to have your data supplemented, deleted or shielded. You must identify yourself with such a request. If you wish your data to be deleted, the Association will forward this deletion to all other organizations that have received the relevant data from the Association.

SECURITY OF PERSONAL DATA

The Association takes appropriate measures to protect your personal data as well as possible against loss, unauthorized access, publication and unlawful processing. Data stored at WOEST is kept as safe as possible and is only accessible to the board. Committees can view parts of personal data if this is considered relevant by the board. In this manner we ensure that only the necessary persons have access to your data, that access to personal data is protected and that our security measures are regularly checked.

LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

The website may contain links to other websites. This Privacy Statement applies only to the Association's website. Other websites may have their own privacy policies. The Association advises you to always consult the relevant privacy statements of those websites before using other websites.

CHANGES OF THE PRIVACY POLICY

The Association adjusts its privacy policy from time to time to keep it up to date. The most recent version of our Privacy Statement will always be included on the website. The Association therefore recommends that you consult the Privacy Statement regularly. In the event of important changes, the Association will make every effort to inform you by email and via the website.
